4. The allegations of Paragraph 4 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.
5. The allegations of Paragraph 5 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.
6. The allegations of Paragraph 6 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.
7. The allegations of Paragraph 7 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.
8. The allegations of Paragraph 8 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in

11. In response to the allegations of Paragraph 11 of the Amended Complaint, it is admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that K's mother signed two affidavits asserting that she did not know the identity or address of K's father. Therefore it was necessary to file two proceedings to accomplish the Ns' objectives – a petition for adoption to address the rights of any identified father of K and a petition to terminate the parental rights of any unidentified father of K. identified fathers are given notice of the adoption proceeding pursuant to G.S. § 48-2-401. Separately, unidentified fathers are given notice of the termination proceeding pursuant to G.S. § 48-2-402 and Chapter 7B. Attached hereto as Exhibits C and D, respectively, are true and accurate copies of the Affidavit of Parentage and Birth Mother Affidavit (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document). Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 11 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

12. In response to the allegations of Paragraph 12 of the Amended Complaint, it is admitted in part and denied in part. Defendant was the primary working attorney on the adoption proceeding. DB and the paralegal TL also worked on the adoption proceeding. TL worked on both. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 12 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

13. The allegations of Paragraph 13 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.

14. The allegations of Paragraph 14 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.

15. The allegations of Paragraph 15 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. Attached hereto as Exhibit E is a true and accurate copy of the Summons and Petition in 10 JT 90 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document). Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 15 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

16. The allegations of Paragraph 16 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. At the time the allegations were made, they were legally and factually accurate. Attached hereto as Exhibit F is a true and accurate copy of the Motion to Permit Service of Process by Publication in 10 JT 90 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document) and the subsequent Order. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 16 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

17. The allegations of Paragraph 17 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. At the time the allegations were made, they were legally and factually accurate. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 17 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

18. The allegations of Paragraph 18 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. Attached hereto as Exhibit G is a true and accurate copy of the Affidavit of Service by Publication in 10 JT 90 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document). Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 18 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

19. The allegations of Paragraph 19 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that J. asserted he could be K's father. It is denied that J's assertion constituted confirmation that J was in fact K's father, as:

- a. On April 15, 2010, J called ACH and spoke with KM of ACH. She notified ACH by e-mail. Attached hereto as Exhibit H is a true and accurate copy of an April 15, 2010, email chain (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).

- b. By April 21, 2010, it was apparent that K's mother had not been truthful and may have had multiple sexual partners. Paternity could not be presumed from J's assertion.
- c. When J was served with the notice of the adoption on April 24, 2010, he was offered an opportunity for paternity testing. He did not respond. He had the letter providing him with instructions on what to do. J attached it to his custody Amended Complaint filed on September 24, 2010.
- d. A motion was filed (on October 14, 2010) and an Order obtained (the hearing was on October 20, 2010 and the Order was entered on November 8, 2010) before J provided a sample.
- e. Paternity was not determined until November 2010.

Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 19 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

20. In response to the allegations of Paragraph 20 of the Amended Complaint, it is admitted in part and denied in part. Attached hereto as Exhibit I is a true and accurate copy of an April 21, 2010, email (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).

- a. It is admitted that on or about April 21, 2010, K's mother identified J as K's father.
- b. It is denied that her assertion in any way constituted legal confirmation that J was K's father.
- c. On April 15, 2010, when she was confronted with someone presenting himself as K's father, K's mother asked if the man who had presented himself was named Michael.
- d. By that point in time it appeared evident that K's mother could not be relied upon to tell the truth about her sexual partners or accurately identify K's father. K's mother had initially identified Calvin or Kelvin and had denied having sexual relations with any other person.
- e. Subsequently, on or about April 21, 2010, K's mother did also identify J.

- f. By then, she had identified multiple potential fathers. Paternity had not been confirmed, could not be presumed, and had to be confirmed with scientific testing.

Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 20 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

21. The allegations of Paragraph 21 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. Attached hereto as Exhibit J is a true and accurate copy of Defendant's April 23, 2010, letter to J (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document). Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 21 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

22. The allegations of Paragraph 22 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that J was not given personal notice of the termination proceeding. J. did not call ACH in response to the notice that was published and did not answer the notice that was published. The termination proceeding was not filed for the purpose of addressing the rights of any identified father and was not directed to any identified father. Petitioners are not required to give an identified father notice of a termination proceeding directed to unknown fathers and are not required to join an identified father in a termination proceeding directed to unidentified fathers.

- a. The notice identified K's mother by name and physical description.
- b. We later learned that J in fact lived in the area where the notice of the termination proceeding appeared at the time that the notice appeared there. Defendant does not know the source of that information.
- c. Judge Bousman made a finding that J has "acknowledged residing in Durham County, North Carolina during the period of time when the notice appeared in the newspaper." Attached hereto as Exhibit K is a true and accurate copy of the January 19, 2011, Order entered by Judge Bousman in 10 JT 90 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).

Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 22 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

23. The allegations of Paragraph 23 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. Defendant does not have any personal recollection of whether there was any discussion with DH about whether to attempt to personally serve J with notice of the termination proceeding. By April 27, 2010 at the latest, DH was aware that J had presented himself and asserted that he could be the father of J. Personal service of the summons and petition because the action was not directed to J. Petitioners are not required to give an identified father notice of a termination proceeding directed to unidentified fathers and Petitioners are not required to join an identified father as a party in a termination proceeding directed to unknown fathers.

- a. As a routine case management practice all cases were listed and their status was summarized on two charts – one for adoption and one for terminations. Defendant reviewed the charts with the paralegals and DH monthly.
- b. The paralegal, TL, worked on both proceedings. Defendant is informed and believes that TL was informed about J on April 15, 2010. TL knew J was served with the notice of adoption on April 24, 2010 and that he filed a response on April 26, 2010.
- c. By April 27, 2010, at the latest, Defendant believes that DH was aware J had presented himself, he was an identified father, he was personally served with notice of the adoption proceeding, had responded to the notice of the adoption proceeding, and his rights were being properly addressed in the adoption proceeding. It did not occur to Defendant to also provide notice of the termination proceeding.

Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 23 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

24. The allegations of Paragraph 24 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. On May 11, 2010, an affidavit of service by publication was signed by TL and was filed in the termination proceeding. The action was directed to unidentified fathers and paternity was still unknown. The affidavit was intended to communicate that publication was complete and no one had responded to the notice that was published. Even if J's paternity have been confirmed, it was still necessary to obtain an order addressing the rights of Kevin, Calvin, Michael and any other unidentified possible father. Defendant was not the primary working attorney on that action and does not recall whether he saw the affidavit signed by TL. Neither Defendant nor anyone else intended to withhold information from the court. Neither Defendant nor anyone else intended to misrepresent information to the court. DH, TL and Defendant anticipated that J's parental rights would be addressed in the adoption proceeding. It did not occur to Defendant to also provide notice of the termination proceeding. As a matter of practice identified persons are not joined in the termination proceeding. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 24 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

25. The allegations of Paragraph 25 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. Defendant was not the primary working attorney on that action. Defendant does not recall whether he saw the affidavit. The action was directed to unidentified fathers. The affidavit was intended to communicate that publication was complete and that no one had responded to the notice that was published. To that extent it was correct. There was no intention to withhold information from the court to misrepresent information to the court. J was separately being served with notice of the adoption and had responded. DH, TL and Defendant anticipated that J's parental rights would be addressed in the adoption proceeding. There was no intention for the termination to apply to J. As a matter of practice identified persons are not joined in the termination proceeding. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 25 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

26. In response to the allegations of Paragraph 26 of the Amended Complaint, it is admitted that the affidavit did not identify J and did not exclude J. Defendant was not the primary working attorney on that action. Defendant does not recall whether he saw the affidavit. The action was directed to unidentified fathers. There was no intention to withhold information from the court or to misrepresent information to the court. J was separately being served with notice of the adoption. At that time there was no intention for the termination to apply to J. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 26 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

27. The allegations of Paragraph 27 of the Amended Complaint are admitted and the affidavit provides the best evidence of the contents contained therein. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 27 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

28. The allegations of Paragraph 28 of the Complaint are admitted. DH appeared for Petitioners. Defendant was not present at the hearing.

29. In response to the allegations of Paragraph 29 of the Amended Complaint, it is admitted that J was not given personal notice of the termination proceeding. There was no intention to address the rights of identified fathers in the termination action. Further, J had received a notice in the adoption proceeding. The termination action was directed to unidentified fathers. We later learned that he in fact lived in the area where the notice was published at the time that the notice was published. The notice identified K's mother by name and physical description. From the Order (paragraph 22), it appeared in November of 2010 that J had been properly served with notice of the termination proceeding. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 29 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

30. The allegations of Paragraph 30 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.

31. The allegations of Paragraph 31 are admitted in part and denied in part. DH knew that J had presented himself as a possible father, had been served with notice of the adoption proceeding, had responded to the notice of the adoption proceeding, and that his rights would be addressed in the adoption proceeding because he was then an identified father. Neither Defendant nor anyone else intended to withhold information from the court. Neither Defendant nor anyone else intended to misrepresent information to the court. On or about June 14, 2010, DH left the employment of the firm on maternity leave and never returned to full time employment. The issue of whether the May 26, 2010, Order applied to J did not arise until November 2010. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 31 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

32. The allegations of Paragraph 32 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. DH and TL knew that J had presented himself as a possible father, had been served with notice of the adoption proceeding, had responded to the notice of the adoption proceeding and that his rights would be addressed in the adoption proceeding because he was then an identified father. It was customary practice to inform the court about identified fathers. It was not customary practice to specifically exclude identified fathers from the application of the order terminating the parental rights of unidentified fathers. Attached hereto as Exhibit L is a true and accurate copy of the Order entered by Judge Bousman on May 26, 2010 in 10 JT 90 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document). Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 32 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

33. The allegations of Paragraph 33 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. DH and TL knew that J had presented himself as a possible father, had been served with notice of the adoption proceeding, had responded to the notice of the adoption proceeding and that his rights would be addressed in the adoption proceeding because he was then an identified father. It was customary practice to inform the court about identified fathers. It was not customary practice to specifically exclude identified fathers from the application of the order terminating the parental rights of unidentified fathers. Except as specifically admitted, the allegations of Paragraph 33 of the Amended Complaint are denied.

34. The allegations of Paragraph 34 of the Amended Complaint are admitted in part and denied in part. Defendant believed the motion to be legally and factually accurate at the time it was filed. Attached hereto as Exhibit M is a true and accurate copy of the Motion for Consent not Necessary filed on November 8, 2010, in 10 SP 364 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).

- a. The issue of whether the May 26, 2010 order applied to J did not arise until November 2010. On or about June 14, 2010, DH left the employment of the firm on maternity leave and never returned to full time employment. We were not in regular communication with her. Defendant did not have the benefit of DH's input before filing the motion.
- b. Sometime after DH left, we later learned that J in fact lived in the area where the notice was published at the time that the notice was published. The notice identified K's mother by name and physical description. From the plain reading of the order, it appeared that J had been properly served with notice of the termination proceeding.
- c. In November 2010 it appeared that J had received notice of the termination proceeding because he in fact lived in the area where the publication appeared at the time that the publication appeared there.
- d. On December 3, 2010, opposing counsel filed a motion in the termination proceeding seeking relief from the May 26, 2010 order. Attached hereto as Exhibit N is a true and accurate copy of the Motion for Relief from Judgment filed in 10 JT 90. (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).
- e. As soon as Defendant received the motion, he reviewed the file in the termination proceeding, contacted opposing counsel, acknowledged the Order should not apply to J, and offered to stipulate to setting aside the May 26, 2010 Order as to J. Opposing counsel declined Defendant's suggestion that the termination Order be set aside as to J and requested that it be set aside in its entirety. Attached hereto as Exhibit O is a true and accurate copy of the December 2010 email chain with opposing counsel. (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).

- f. On January 7, 2011, Defendant filed a reply and motion in the termination proceeding acknowledging the error and joining in a request that J be relieved of application of the May 26, 2010 order. Attached hereto as Exhibit P is a true and accurate copy of this Reply and Motion in 10 JT 90. (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).
- g. In addition on January 14, 2011, Defendant filed an amended motion in the adoption proceeding which withdrew the assertion that J.'s rights had been terminated. Attached hereto as Exhibit Q is a true and accurate copy of the Amended Motion for Consent not Necessary filed in 10 JT 90 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).
- h. Attached hereto as Exhibit R is a true and accurate copy of the transcript of the hearing before Judge Christian on January 6, 2011, in 10 CVD 16180 (the names of the non-counsel participants have been redacted from the document).
- i. Again, Judge Bousman entered the Rule 60 Order in 10 JT 90 on January 19, 2011 (see Exhibit J). The Order findings include the following:
 - "It appears from the pleadings that Mr. Mills primarily worked on the adoption action and that Donna Hart primarily worked on the termination of parental rights action. Petitioner's counsel credits the mistakes made in this proceeding that resulted in the May 26, 2010 order being applied to Dalroyce Jones, III to the fact that two different attorneys worked on different aspects of this matter. Petitioner's failure to notify the Court in this proceeding about Mr. Jones was the result of a failure to communicate between the attorneys for Petitioner. No evidence of fraud or intentional misconduct has been presented to the Court." (paragraph 32)
 - "Dalroyce Jones, III is entitled to relief as provided in Rule 60(b)(1) due to the mistake, inadvertence, and/or excusable neglect of Petitioner's counsel." (paragraph 35).
 - "Since Joyce Jones alleged that the biological father of her child was Calvin or Kevin, persons whose full identities and whereabouts were not known to her and since these persons were properly served in this matter, the Order Allowing Petition for the Termination of Parental Rights entered on May 26, 2010 should remain in full force and effect as to the parental rights of Calvin or Kevin or Any Unknown or Possible Parent, but not Dalroyce Jones, III." (paragraph 36).

35. The allegations of Paragraph 35 of the Amended Complaint are admitted.

Defendant believed the motion to be legally and factually accurate at the time it was filed.

36. All allegations in the Amended Complaint not heretofore expressly responded to by Defendant are denied.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully prays that:

1. There be no disciplinary action taken against Defendant;
2. The costs of this action be taxed against Plaintiff; and
3. For such other and further relief as may be deemed just and proper.

This the 3 day of November, 2014.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RISK

We, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] the undersigned prospective adoptive parents of [REDACTED], born on January 9, 2010, understand and acknowledge that this proposed adoptive placement involves certain legal and medical risks. We have been informed of the following potential risks and have been advised that we may seek independent legal and medical counsel to advise us regarding these risks.

We understand that information provided by birth parents to the agency regarding paternity and health and medical history may be incomplete or inaccurate. We further understand that although A Child's Hope has made reasonable efforts to obtain and provide information that is available from birth parents and sources to which the birth parents direct them, we have also been informed that A Child's Hope has not undertaken to independently verify information provided by birth parents or obtained from other sources in relation to this placement.

We understand that the legal risks include the risk that a birth parent who consents to adoptive placement or executes a relinquishment for adoption may revoke his/her consent. A consent to the adoption of a child may be revoked within seven (7) days following the day on which the consent by a parent is executed, inclusive of weekends and holidays. If the final day of the revocation period falls on a weekend or North Carolina or federal holiday, then the revocation period extends to the next business day. Notice may be given by overnight or certified mail and is complete upon deposit. We understand that while the revocation period has expired and no revocation has been communicated to A Child's Hope, it is still possible that a revocation may be received by mail.

We understand that if a person who has physical custody places the minor child with the prospective adoptive parent and thereafter revokes a consent pursuant to the statute, then the prospective adoptive parent shall, immediately upon request, return the minor child to that person. The revocation of the consent to adopt restores the right to physical custody and any right to legal custody to the person who placed the minor and divests the prospective adoptive parent of any right to legal or physical custody and any further responsibility for the care and support of the minor. We further understand and have been advised that in any subsequent legal proceeding, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees to the person who revoked if the prospective adoptive parent fails upon request to return the minor child.

We have been informed that the birth mother has provided A Child's Hope with the following information related to the person she believes to be the birth father: birth father is an African American male between 24 and 27 years old. He is six feet tall and has black hair and brown eyes. The birth mother describes him as having a dark complexion and a medium build. She does not know his weight. She states that she met the birth father at a party in another city and they had consensual sex but did not exchange phone number or any other information, other than first names. She has identified the name of the hotel where they had sex and said that she has had no other information on him. She states that she has never talked to him again and that none of her friends know him and she does not know how to contact him.

A Child's Hope will attempt to locate the birth father. The birth mother is not aware of any contact information for him. She states that he is not aware of the pregnancy and adoption plan. She also states that he has not acknowledged paternity, communicated with her or provided support to or for her or the baby.

The Agency will try to locate the identified birth father, obtain relinquishment, and cooperation with paternity testing. If we cannot locate the identified birth father, then it will be necessary to file a petition for termination of parental rights as to the identified birth father and any unknown parent or possible parent of the child. It will be necessary to serve the identified birth father and any unknown parent or possible parent with process by publication of a legal notice in the state or country where he was last known to reside. The agency may also choose to publish in a second location if that is deemed appropriate.

Paternity of this child has not been established as of the time of placement of this child. It cannot be predicted at this time whether it will be possible to confirm paternity of this child. The physical appearance of the child is not an accurate means of determining the race of the parents. The birth mother's own racial heritage will have a significant impact on the appearance of the child. In the absence of a scientific or judicial determination of paternity, we have no choice but to rely upon the representations of the mother regarding the race of the child's father. Unless paternity is determined, we cannot be any more certain of the child's parentage than the birth mother herself.

In the event that paternity is not confirmed for the identified birth father, the agency will try to communicate with the birth mother about any other possible birth fathers, will attempt to locate the other potential named birth father, obtain relinquishments, and cooperation with paternity testing. If we cannot locate the identified birth father, then it will be necessary to file a petition for termination of parental rights as to the identified birth father and any unknown parent or possible parent. It will be necessary to serve the identified birth father and any unknown parent or possible parent with process by publication of a legal notice in the state or country where he was last known to reside. The agency may also choose to publish in a second and third location if that is deemed appropriate. We understand that there are additional legal fees for termination of parental rights and the publication costs and we agree to pay those if it is necessary to terminate as to any additional birth fathers.

When a birth father has not executed a consent to the adoptive placement, the birth father's paternal rights must be terminated under Article 24B of Chapter 7A of the North Carolina General Statutes or by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state or there must be a determination that his consent is not necessary pursuant to North Carolina General Statutes §§ 48-3-601 and 48-3-603 due to his failure to take steps to preserve his rights. We have been advised of the risk resulting from not knowing the identity of the birth father including the risk that an unknown father might seek to set aside the adoption at a later date. We have been advised that it is necessary to publish a notice to any unknown or potential fathers and that an unknown birth father's paternal rights must be terminated under Article 24B of Chapter 7A of the North Carolina General Statutes or by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state.

We have been advised that A Child's Hope recommends that we engage the law firm of Herring Mills & Kratt, PLLC to initiate any required legal action for our adoption or to terminate parental rights of the birth parents. We have been advised that Parker Herring and Bobby Mills are principals in A Child's Hope and Herring Mills & Kratt, PLLC. We understand that we have the option to choose to be represented by another law firm. Having been advised of these circumstances and our options, we have elected to (Choose one of the following by initialing your selection and striking through the other alternative):

- ✓ 1) Be represented by the law firm of Herring Mills & Kratt, PLLC.
- ~~2) Obtain representation by another law firm of our choice.~~

We understand that there are also medical and genetic risks associated with all adoptive placements. Health history information provided by birth parents may be unavailable or inaccurate. While every effort will be made to provide health records from the birth parents, those records may be incomplete and inconclusive. We have not relied upon A Child's Hope for evaluation or review of health history or medical information related to this placement. We understand that A Child's Hope has not undertaken to independently verify health history or medical information provided by birth parents or obtained from other sources in relation to this placement. We have been advised that we may have a physician of our choice review health history or medical information related to this placement.

We have been informed that the birth mother has stated: she had an initial visit in June to confirm pregnancy and attempted to be seen in October at an Emergency Room and on that occasion was monitored by a fetal monitor. Additionally, she has had one prenatal visit in the Emergency Room on November 21. She states that she smokes about five cigarettes a day, and has had a "few drinks - about 3" occasionally approximately every other month before finding out she was pregnant in June. The hospital confirmed after the baby's birth that HIV was negative for the birth mother and the baby's drug screen was negative. Birth mother tested positive for Group B strep after delivery. Baby was monitored for 48 hours. Baby was noted to be in good health and eating well. Birth mother is covered by Medicaid.

The birth mother has provided some family medical history. We have been provided copies of the DSS Forms 5102 Non-identifying Background Information and 5103 Health History Part I & II provided by the birth mother, prenatal records, and the hospital medical records for the birth mother and baby. The birth mother states that she has had no negative mental health history. Her family medical history shows that her mother had lung cancer and a brain tumor at age 56 and her father had a heart attack.

Thorough medical background is currently unavailable for the identified birth father. If the identified birth father is contacted, attempts will be made to obtain complete information if he is cooperative. We acknowledge that there may be no additional medical information available on the birth father.

The baby was born on January 9, 2010. At birth he weighed 6 lbs 13 oz and he measured 20 inches. His APGAR scores were not obtainable due to his being born at home. He has black hair and a dark complexion. The baby spent approximately a week in respite care following discharge from the hospital. No significant health concerns have been reported for the child as of the time of this placement by the respite care provider. Although the hospital submitted the newborn screen (PKU test) to the State laboratory for processing, we acknowledge that these tests are difficult to obtain due to the confidentiality of adoption. We acknowledge that the agency recommends that we obtain another newborn screen (PKU test) by our own pediatrician.

We acknowledge that we have been informed that there are state and federal funds available to assist adoptive parents in providing care for eligible children with special health or behavioral conditions. These funds are generally referred to as adoption assistance funds and are intended to assist with the financial burden of caring for a child which has, or is predisposed to develop, special health or behavioral conditions. Adoption assistance may include monthly reoccurring payments, vendor payments, and or reimbursement of non reoccurring adoption legal expenses. We understand that in order to receive adoption assistance benefits, including benefits for any potential future condition or handicap, those benefits must be granted before the final adoption decree has been entered. We understand that the failure to obtain an award of adoption assistance benefits before the entry of the final decree of adoption will likely result in a permanent loss of those benefits. We understand that A Child's Hope cannot apply for those benefits for us and that it is our responsibility to apply for those benefits if we wish to do so.

We understand that A Child's Hope has legal custody of this child and has the right to exercise physical custody of this child. A Child's Hope is delegating to us the responsibility of exercising physical care and custody of this child. We agree to provide for the child's physical care and to take all reasonable measures necessary to provide for the child's health and general welfare.

We agree to notify A Child's Hope as soon as possible of any adverse change in the child's health that requires medical treatment by a physician or other health care services provider. We agree to immediately obtain health care insurance coverage for any child placed with us for adoption and to be responsible for all health care expenses for any such child. We agree to indemnify and hold harmless A Child's Hope from all liability arising by reason of any medical or health condition of the child, known or unknown, whether currently existing or discovered at some later date.

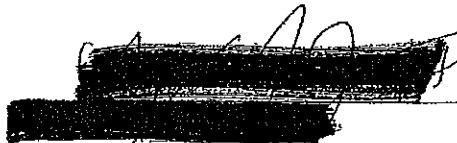

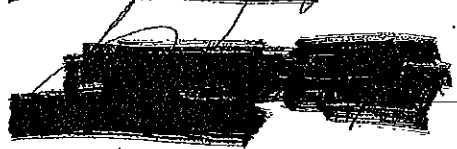

We understand that some birth mothers receive financial assistance from A Child's Hope for actual, ordinary living expenses during her pregnancy and continuing through the period ending six weeks after delivery. We understand that A Child's Hope has provided us with a good faith estimate of the amounts expended to date and those that are anticipated within the six weeks following delivery. We have been informed that any amounts that we have paid to A Child's Hope for the benefit of the birth mother of this child are essentially a gift. In the event of a revocation of a relinquishment by a birth parent, we understand any amounts paid cannot be recovered either from the birth parent(s) or A Child's Hope.

We understand that agency adoptive placements in North Carolina are confidential. All records are sealed and may not be disclosed. We understand that A Child's Hope, and its agents are not permitted to release the name, address or any other information that could reasonably be expected to lead directly to our identity, the identity of any child that we adopt, the identity of a birth parent or any biological sibling or grandparent of any child that we adopt, unless we and the birth mother sign a DSS 5218 Consent to Release Identifying Information prior to the finalization of the adoption. We understand that if we elect to share identifying information with a birth parent for any child that we adopt we do so at our own risk and not at the direction of A Child's Hope.

We understand that post-placement reports are required to finalize this adoption. We agree to cooperate fully with the Agency, or any other supervising entity, to accomplish the post-placement investigation, report to the court and in any action for termination of parental rights.

This the 20th day of January, 2010.

A copy of her Relinquishment is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference. The revocation period has expired and [REDACTED] has not revoked her Relinquishment. [REDACTED] Relinquishment is now irrevocable.

5. On January 11, 2010, A Child's Hope, LLC accepted the Relinquishment of [REDACTED] as shown by a copy of the Acceptance of Relinquishment of Minor For Adoption By Parent or Guardian attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by reference.

6. On January 20, 2010, the Agency placed the child with an adoptive couple that has a completed pre-placement assessment recommending them for adoptive placement. The child resides with the adoptive parents in Wake County, North Carolina.

7. On January 20, 2010, the prospective adoptive parents filed a Petition for Adoption in Wake County, North Carolina to adopt this child.

8. In her Affidavit which is attached hereto as Exhibit "D" and incorporated herein by reference, [REDACTED] identifies "Calvin or Kevin" as the biological father of this child.

9. In her Affidavit, [REDACTED] states that conception took place on or about February 28, 2009 at the Red Roof Inn on Highway 54 in Durham, North Carolina.

12. The whereabouts of Calvin or Kevin or Any Unknown or Possible Parent are not known and cannot with the exercise of due diligence be determined.

13. The parental rights of Calvin or Kevin or Any Unknown or Possible Parent are subject to termination pursuant to N.G.G.S. §7B-1111(a)(5) in that prior to the filing of this Petition no Any Unknown or Possible Parent has:

- g. The child was born on January 9, 2010 and is now approximately 3 months old.
- h. The biological mother has indicated that she believes that it is in the best interest of the child to be adopted by the prospective adoptive parents and that the rights of any unknown or possible parent of the child should be terminated.
- i. The biological parents have not had custody of the child and have not created a bond with the child.

- j. Post placement reports based upon home visits indicate that the prospective adoptive parents are loving and nurturing and provide a stable environment that meets the child's needs.
- k. Post placement reports further indicate that the child is thriving and meeting developmental guidelines.
- l. It appears likely that the Petition for Adoption will be granted.
- m. The termination of parental rights will aid in the accomplishment of the placement of this child.

15. This Court has jurisdiction to make a child custody determination with regard to this child pursuant to N.C.G.S. §50A-3 as shown above.

16. Calvin or Kevin or Any Unknown or Possible Parent is not in service on active duty with any branch of the United States Armed Services or Coast Guard.

[REDACTED] called bm to first let her know that pictures and update are going to be mailed today. [REDACTED] then let her know that we had a call from a young man saying that he could possibly be the BF, without telling the name given. [REDACTED] asked what was his name again. BM was stunned and then said Michael or something like that. BM then could not recall the name given. [REDACTED] reminded her that it was Calvin or Kevin. BM confirmed that she met him in Durham and that she has not had contact with him nor was there another possible bf. [REDACTED] also asked did anyone who knows him, contact him about the baby, etc. BM stated that she did not know anyone who would contact him. AC kept the conversation very brief and did not share any other information at this time.

BM finally responded to [REDACTED] by sending a text that said, "I have made some BIG mistakes. And I want [REDACTED] to be able to have his son." After the text, [REDACTED] called Supervisor and then called BM back but she did not answer. [REDACTED] left a brief message [REDACTED] then sent BM a text back and asked if she would be more comfortable communicating by text? BM responded, "yes at least right now."

Through communicating with BM, BM said that she and [REDACTED] were in a relationship and did live together for about six months or maybe a little longer (October 2008- April 2009). They lived in Durham and she had been laid off from her job right after she moved in. [REDACTED] paid the bills and at the time worked for [REDACTED]. BM and [REDACTED] were together at Duke Hospital when she found out she was pregnant which she reported was in March or April. There were no other appointments after that. She said that they had a decent relationship and they parted ways because he knew she was pregnant and she told him she had an abortion. She stated that was her plan but it didn't happen. She then moved and he contacted her to ask if she really had an abortion. She said yes and they then lost contact for a while.

BM reports that [REDACTED] now works at [REDACTED]

BM wanted to know what happens now. [REDACTED] must responded by saying, "I really don't know because now this a major legal issue that the directors will have to determine the next steps." BM then asked "Is this a situation where I will be in trouble for whatever reason?" [REDACTED] responded by just saying, "I am not sure the Directors/Lawyers will have to provide information related to the legal aspect and will contact you if needed." [REDACTED] ended the conversation by asking BM if it was ok for [REDACTED] to contact her if there are additional questions or other information needed and BM said that would be okay.
